

Media Monitoring of Digital and Civic Space Violation and Gender Disinformation

Following data is the outcome of collaborative media monitoring by Voices for Interactive Choice and Empowerment (VOICE) and The Daily Ittefaq. Various media platforms have been scanned on a daily basis for news and content related to violations of Digital and Civic Space (DCS) and Gendered Disinformation (GD).

| October 2024 – December 2024                                |                     |
|---|---------------------|
| Nature of Violence  | Number of Incidents |
| Access to information                                       | 1                   |
| Harassment and intimidation of journalists/ HRDs/ activists | 5                   |
| Bodily injury and assault of journalists/ HRDs/ activists   | 9                   |
| Killing of journalists/ HRDs/ activists                     | 3                   |
| Media freedom and censorship                                | 2                   |
| Vexatious case against journalists/ HRDs/ activists         | 3                   |
| Arbitrary detention of journalists/ HRDs/ activists         | 2                   |
| Abduction of journalists/ HRDs/ activists                   | 3                   |
| Threat to journalists/ HRDs/ activists                      | 2                   |
| Violence against woman journalist                           | 1                   |
| Freedom of assembly   | 1                   |
| Enforcement mechanism against journalists/ HRDs/ activists  | 1                   |
| Gendered disinformation                                     | 3                   |
| Total  | 36           |

Source: Prothom Alo, The Daily Star, Independent TV, Dhaka Tribune, The Business Standard, Somoynews, bdnews24.com, Kalbela, Ittefaq, Financial Express, Bangla Tribune, Samakal, New Age, Jago News, Daily Country Today, Dhaka Post, Channel 24, Dainik Banglar Barta, Kaler Kantho